DEMOCRACY IN ACTION

Carolyn Brenner

Perfectly synchronized with the steadily mounting school spirit this term, was the ever active Board of Commissioners. Working somewhat on the lines of the United States President's cabinet, this body presented a well balanced program which met with the student body's hearty approval. Having instigated a definite optimistic fervor within the Tribe, the executive body went on to create further inter-school spirit and expressed its national patriotism, at the President's request, by saluting the flag before each commissioners' meeting. This, and an exchange of friendly greetings after each O. A. L. game, established new precedents at McClymonds.

A GLANCE AT '39 FOOTBALL

Returning to school, McClymonds' students found two new coaches awaiting them. Switches in the Oakland teaching system affected McClymonds in two sport departments. Mr. Art Ross, former coach of Castlemont's football and basketball teams, took over the reins as Indian football mentor. McClymonds' alumnus, Mr. Jack Capri, from Hoover Junior High, was appointed head of McClymonds' Physical Education Department. He also assumed the role of new basketball coach.

Finishing in a tie for last place, does not reveal the success McClymonds and the football team accomplished this season. Inspired by Nick Petris, student body president, Mike Ybarra, yell leader, and the new coaches, the student body responded with the most enthusiasm and spirit this school has evidenced in years.

MACK 0—ROOSEVELT 19.—A green Indian team took the field, favorite in its first O. A. L. encounter. Roosevelt, caring naught about predictions, worked on a weak Warrior line and produced three touchdowns.

Fighting a scoreless first quarter, the Teddies received a break on Marcellus Huff's fumble in the early stage of the second quarter. They marched to the Indian 10-yard line, where, on fourth down, Rocca Mosca dropped back and tossed a strike to John Goodman for 6 points. The conversion was good.

Burglarizing the Warrior air-planes, the Cowboys tallied their second and third touchdowns. Gillick intercepted Willie Bernal's pass and scampered across the goal line. Then Lopez of Roosevelt repeated the performance and went 45 yards to a touchdown after intercepting Tony Novak's pass.

The McClymonds Record started a pre-season ballyhoo campaign praising its two tackles, Captain Bob Silva and Paul Kouns. Both boys proved their worth, for they provided the chief thrills for Redskin rooters by vicious tackling and blocking performances. Frank Harris, Warrior guard, was knocked out at the kickoff.

MACK 14—SAN LEANDRO 0.—Seemingly a new Warrior team took the field, for in the past the team depended on its line to provide most of the power. Previously the Mackmen never had an elusive backfield, but the Indians surprised with an array of tricky plays and passes. The Pirates were bewildered with the Warrior attack and were scalped by the tomahawkmen 14 to 0 on the Cherrypicker grounds.

Concentrating on power plays, the Braves marched to the Pirate 10-yard line, where they were stopped. San Leandro tried to kick out of danger, but the Warriors' front wall proved to be an impregnable obstacle.

Captain Bob Silva blocked the kick with his knee, and when it rolled over the goal line, Anthony Novak recovered it for the first Warrior tally of the season. Paul Kouns kicked the extra point.

Mack's second touchdown came late in the second half when Frank Paich tossed a pass to Charles Stranahan, right end, who eluded two Pirate tacklers and chalked up the second 6 points. Kouns again booted the conversion.

COACH ROSS

MACK 7—CASTLEMONT 13.—Fighting valiantly, McClymonds' Warriors succumbed to the crushing offensive of the invading Castlemont Knights. Sheer exhaustion cost them the contest, 13 to 7. The Indians' gallant gladiators almost scored the biggest upset in O. A. L. football, but missed their goal due to a lack of line reserves.

This game marked a new peak in high school sportsmanship. Mr. Art Ross, former Castlemont mentor, was presented a floral horseshoe by the Knights at impressive opening game ceremonies.

The Braves drew first blood in the second quarter. Frank Paich threw a pass to Norman Cameron, sensational end, who played the game despite a hampered leg. Cameron, surrounded by three Knights, snagged the pigskin in midair, whirled around and seemed bound for a touchdown, but was clipped from behind on the Crusader 25. The clipping offense cost the Knights 15 yards and placed the ball on their 10 yard stripe. From that point Redskin backs Tony Novak, Willie Bernal and Paich drove to the 3. On third down Paich dropped back to pass, realized its futility and drove over the line for the score. The jubilant Warriors baffled their opponents the remainder of the half, and just missed marking up two more touchdowns.

Then came the fatal third quarter. The Knights were fired up, and before the Indians knew what happened, they had scored two touchdowns. It was an undeserved defeat for the Redskins who outplayed the invaders in every department of the game for three quarters.

MACK 0—FREMONT 6.—McClymonds' bold eleven staggered through the Fremont tilt on the short end of a 6 to 0 score. Trying vainly to chalk up their second victory, the Braves suffered a fumbleitis complex on the kickoff. Alfred Gutierrez and Paich fumbled, Gutierrez recovered, but Paich was not as fortunate. Art Titus pounced on Paich's fumble on the McClymonds' 10-yard line. Titus, in two powerful line bucks, advanced to the 4, where Center Sam Elchinoff stopped him. In the third crushing drive, Titus plowed into the end zone. The conversion was blocked.

Mack's outstanding tackles, Kouns and Silva, played their hearts out, as did James Skaff, hard working guard. Elchinoff and Aldo Galassi strengthened Mack's center defense in the absence of Center Victor Silva, injured in the Castle fray.

MACK 19—TECHNICAL 7.—Springing to startling power, McClymonds' conquering Warriors made history at the annual big game with Technical, emerging from the shadow of defeat to crush the Bulldogs 19 to 6 before a jubilant Mack crowd that probably will never again witness such a thrilling spectacle.

Although McClymonds was the visiting school, spirit was at the highest peak it had been in years, and Technical fans were outnumbered two to one.

Tech gave the Mackites heart failure in the first five minutes of play. Utilizing a tricky shift, the Bulldogs marched straight to a touchdown which followed a pass from Pierson to Bostwick. Was this game to end as the classics of the past? Was Tech to deprive the marauding Braves of a long desired big game victory?

The Indians had no intention of being rejected. In the second quarter, led by driving plunges of Bernal, the Cardinals moved the ball to Tech's 3. On a trick play, Novak went over for the touchdown. The conversion was blocked. The two squads battled to a tie up to the last three minutes of play. In the drive to their second touchdown, the Warriors were stopped on the 3. On last down, Paich dropped back to try for a field goal which went wide. Tech risked a pass from the 20 which was good for ten yards. Another pass was attempted, but Paich intercepted and was brought down on the Tech 20. After three unsuccessful attempts via the air route, a fourth was tried by Paich. The ball seemed to be headed nowhere in particular, but Norman Cameron, outstanding player of the day, came from behind two Technites and snagged the pass deep in the end zone to give the Warriors the lead. Captain Bob Silva converted.

McClymonds kicked off. Sal Guido took the ball on his 10 and returned to the 40. On first down, Tech tried a pass, Frank Paich intercepted, and behind perfect blocking dashed unmolested into pay dirt. The Bulldogs threw the pigskin around wildly, and it landed in the arms of Bob Ramirez, who packed it to the Tech 10. Before the Warriors could get under way to another touchdown, the gun sounded, ending a game that will remain in the memory of every Mackite.

Cameron made four difficult catches, setting up the first, and making the second touchdown. He played the best game of his prep career on the gridiron, as did Bernal and Paich.

MACK 0—OAKLAND 0.—Having slowly, almost lazily pushed each other back and forth o'er the mid-field stripe, McClymonds and Oakland remained tied in the league standing with a scoreless deadlock.

Outstanding for the Warriors was Bernal who set up a chance for a score, but a fellow Brave was thrown for an 11-yard loss, nullifying the threat. His hard line driving was felt by the Oaks.

James Skaff showed All-City caliber, as did Captain Silva and Kouns, tackles. The two small packages of dynamite also played good games with tricky running and speed in the open. Jim Russo and Jim McGowan showed deceptive tactics in springing free of would-be tacklers.

MACK 6—UNIVERSITY 14.—After a scoreless battle in three periods, "Lady Luck," by a cruel wave of her anti-Warrior wand, turned down a fighting Mack football team with a 14 to 6 count in the season's final skirmish against University.

In the fourth quarter, Mack forced the Cubs back to their 25 chalkmark where, after a short pass over center, an interception by Mario Magnani proved fatal. He scooted up to the 30; confronted with Warrior tacklers, he lateraled to Spratt who cashed in on the opportunity with a 70-yard dash to the goal line. This did not stop the Cub scoring. They marched to the Indian's 4, where Fred Parson went over to a score.

Taking the kick off, fiery quarterback Jim Russo brought the Redskin rooters to their feet by dodging and twisting his way for a beautiful 65-yard run. Then the Warriors came to life. On a tricky play, Tackle Kouns took the ball and registered a 23-yard gain. On three plays from the 7, Paich drove it over, assisted by Aldo Lorenzi and Victor Silva.

Tackles Silva and Kouns played their best game of the season. Another senior who played outstanding football throughout the year, and topped his performances playing a brilliant game against the Cubs, was Victor Silva, Indian's varsity center.
